Virtual Town Hall
COVID-19 and the African American Community

Saturday, January 16, 2021
1:00 – 2:30 PM

Panelists

Kiela Samuels, PharmD
Clinical Pharmacist, Division of Allergy & Clinical Immunology
Michigan Medicine

Jessie Kimbrough Marshall, MD, MPH
Adjunct Assistant Professor
Michigan Medicine

Bishop Harry S. Grayson
Pastor
Messias Temple Church

A live discussion with experts who will
- share facts based on science
- acknowledge lack of trust of healthcare by African Americans
- discuss steps toward equitable and ethical healthcare
- share their personal stories about COVID-19, vaccines, and health disparities.

Moderator: Othelia Pryor, PhD, Senior Project Manager,
Office for Health Equity & Inclusion, Michigan Medicine

Register and submit questions for the panel here COVID-19 Town Hall (required). Registered participants will receive a Zoom link. Join by smartphone, computer or tablet. Phone option (audio only) also available.

Questions: Contact Trudy Hall at tthall@med.umich.edu or call 734-998-4482.

Sponsored by Program for Multicultural Health in collaboration with Ministerial Alliance of Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor & Vicinity, Messias Temple Church, and SJMHS Ann Arbor/Chelsea